

Università degli Studi di Palermo
Rettorato

Regione Siciliana
Assessorato Turismo, Sport e Spettacolo

Centro Internazionale di Etnostoria
Palermo

SICIALIAN WEEK OF THE DEMOETHNOANTHROPOLOGICAL CULTURE

Premio Internazionale di Etnostoria “G. Pitрэ - S. Salomone Marino” 2010

The Premio Internazionale di Etnostoria Giuseppe Pitрэ -Salvatore Salomone Marino is open to all Italian and foreign scholars, with or without academic qualifications, who have made and published their researches in demoethnoanthropological and ethno-historical field or regarding, plus wide, Human Sciences.

The Premio consists of the following sections:

Sigillo d’Oro dell’Università degli Studi di Palermo

Awarded for a lifetime achievement to an Italian or foreign scholar nominated by at least one University or Scientific Research Institute.

Premio G. Pitрэ – S. Salomone Marino: € 5.000,00

Awarded for a book or long essay on demoethnoanthropological issues.

Premio Presidente del Centro Internazionale di Etnostoria: € 3.000,00

Awarded for a ethnohistoric study (essay or audiovisual/photographic document).

Premio Giuria Internazionale: € 3.000,00

Awarded for a book or long essay or audiovisual/photographic document on cultural identity issues.

Premio di Etnomedicina (Silverplaque)

Awarded for a book or long essay on issues concerning the history of medicine, medical and health traditions, Community Health, as well as epidemiological researches, on social, behavioural and eating habits, on various aspects of ethnical medicine, traditional Medicine and Pharmaceutics, alternative Medicine and Pharmaceutics.

Premio G. Cocchiara (Silverplaque)

Awarded for a book or long essay on ethnohistoric issues in the regional ambit.

The Jury may also award “Special Nominations”. The Members of the Jury will be rendered famous within the June 30th 2010.

Works submitted must be published after January the 1st 2006.

Applicants competing for the Premio Internazionale di Etnostoria “G. Pitrè – S. Salomone Marino” must send five copies of their works (books, essays, audiovisual material, etc.), together with:

- personal CV and picture;
- personal data, with postal address, telephone numbers, e-mail address and telefax number (if any), accompanied by a written authorization for the use of their personal data within the Premio.

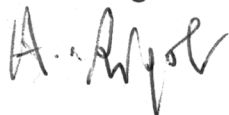

Works must be sent to the following address:

Segreteria del “Premio G. Pitrè - S. Salomone Marino”
c/o Centro Internazionale di Etnostoria, Piazza Niscemi, 48 - 90146 Palermo (Italia)
Tel. 091 7510473; Fax 091 7510355; E-mail: ciepaler@tin.it.

The submission deadline is 15th October 2010

The scholar awarded with the “Sigillo d’Oro dell’Università degli Studi di Palermo” will be invited to leave a copy of his/her works to the “E. Vittorietti” library of C.I.E. (Complesso Steri, Piazza Marina n. 57, PALERMO) and will also be invited to deliver a Lecture for the students of the University of Palermo.

Il Presidente della Giuria
Prof. Aurelio Rigoli

Il Presidente del Premio
Prof. Roberto Lagalla

